The French company CNI (IRANEX Group) wins the prize for the best export company

Rouen, July 2006 – The French Ministry of Economy, Finances and Industry awarded CNI - Colloides Naturels International, the grand prize of best export company - Cap Export 2006.

The award ceremony was held on 20th June, rue de Bercy, in the presence of Christine Lagarde, Delegate Minister of Foreign Trade.

This prize is awarded each year to the most successful companies on the basis of criteria such as the percentage of turnover from exports, infrastructures, subsidiaries, distribution networks abroad and growth in terms of turnover.

CNI is part of the IRANEX Group created in 1895, led by Stéphane & Gontran Dondain. The headquarters are located in Rouen since 1975.

CNI is the leading international manufacturer of Acacia gum (Arabic gum) major ingredient for the food and the nutrition industry.

The company is present in more than 75 countries via its 8 distribution subsidiaries and a network of 45 agents. CNI exports almost 90% of its production. It supplies the largest international food groups for applications in drinks, confectionary, dairy products, nutrition, food supplements, etc...

IRANEX's President, Stéphane Dondain, thanks the group's subsidiaries (CNI Group, Starlight Products Group and Nutriprocess Group) as well as all its raw material partners for their support and business partnership.
